

MCREN New Principal Collaborative

A No-Cost Leadership Series & Community of Practice in 2024-25

The MCREN New Principal Collaborative is open to any new principal or assistant principal! The Collaborative will prepare new principals to meet the constantly evolving challenges that school leaders face. Join us for this unique opportunity as we build a regional network of support for new principals!

Participants will receive the tools to implement practices of a strong leader; to build an inclusive, equity centered school culture; to mold a school where everyone wants to work; and to manage time so that student outcomes and wellbeing are always at the forefront.

The Collaborative consists of five sessions (a combination of in-person & virtual) beginning October 2024 through May 2025.

Topics Include:

- Defining & Determining Your Leadership Values
- Human Resources
- Building Relationships & Difficult Conversations
- Community Engagement
- Observations & Evaluations
- Creating Action Plans
- MTSS & Support Services (IEP, 504, LRE)
- Shared Leadership

Schedule:

- Session 1: 10/22/24 from 8-12:00 p.m. - In Person
(Breakfast & Lunch Provided)
- Session 2: 12/4/24 from 4-6:00 p.m. - Virtual
- Session 3: 2/12/25 from 4-6:00 p.m. - Virtual
- Session 4: 4/16/25 from 4-6:00 p.m. - Virtual
- Session 5: 5/14/25 from 8-12:00 p.m. - In Person
(Breakfast & Lunch Provided)

Register Online at:

bit.ly/mcrennewprincipalcollab

Contact:

For questions please contact:
Laura Goodman, Laura@mcren.org

About the Facilitator:

MCREN's Principal Mentor Training is facilitated by Mike Scott, former Superintendent of Hillsboro School District. Mike brings 36 years of experience in education having served as Superintendent, Assistant Superintendent of Human Resources, Principal, Assistant Principal, Counselor and Teacher. As a certified executive coach, he coaches school and district leaders.

