

New School Leader Collaborative

A No-Cost Leadership Series & Community of Practice in 2025-26

The MCREN New School Leader Collaborative is open to any new principal or assistant principal in the Multnomah-Clackamas region. The Collaborative will prepare new principals to meet the constantly evolving challenges that school leaders face. Join us for this unique opportunity as we build a regional network of support for new principals!

Participants will receive the tools to implement practices of a strong leader; to build an inclusive, equity centered school culture; to mold a school where everyone wants to work; and to manage time so that student outcomes and wellbeing are always at the forefront.

The Collaborative consists of five in-person sessions from September 2025 through May 2026. In addition, participants have the option to participate in drop-in/virtual office hours for one hour, four times throughout the year to discuss problems of practice.
